Hello!

Phenomena Research & Assessment Group (PRAG) is an organized collective of targeted individuals and supporters.

We believe that our understanding of TI experience might be improved by reevaluation and focused, coordinated effort.

Our goals are:

- establishment of a reputable and credible think tank for TI community
- create an organized and functional organization of TIs and outside supporters
- development & application of systemic methodology and outside the box approach in TI phenomenon research
- coordinating and focusing the effort to achieve results
- gathering data on TI cases, their stories, facts and interpretations of said facts by TIs, as well as any related data
- research and analysis of collected data to advance our understanding of the phenomenon
- preparation and publication of research result, communicating them to TI community as well as to general population
- creation of international TI communication framework to share data & research

To achieve our goals, we have prepared the roadmap for upcoming months, as well as platforms to conduct research, publish materials, promote and enlist new members. If you are interested in collaboration or information, please browse & subscribe to any of those channels:

- Discord → <https://discord.gg/ukDrctBw2w>

- subreddit r/PRAG → <https://www.reddit.com/r/PRAG/>
- Medium → <https://medium.com/@pragroup>
- Telegram → <https://t.me/pragroup>

If you wish to support our effort, please consider subscribing to our Patreon → <https://www.patreon.com/pragroup> or making a direct donation in crypto. Our materials and research will always be free of charge but funding is essential to sustain any functional organization.
